

Please do not do anything to lessen the effects of the Indiana No-call law. We used to get 15-20 calls every week, now we get only 1 or 2 calls a week. Unless these callers want to pay my phone bill, they have no right to call me at my home to try to sell me products or services.